

2018 Scholarship

The Columbus Section Scholarship Committee is pleased to announce that it awarded $500 scholarships to three deserving students.

Annamarie Nocera is a Junior Neuroscience and Gerontology Pre-Med major at Miami University; she has been named to the dean's list on several occasions. She serves as the Vice President of Public Relations for Toastmasters International at Miami University and the Vice President of the Opening Minds through Art Club which facilitates art sessions for people with Alzheimer's and other forms of dementia. Annamarie is a resident assistant for the university where she oversees the safety and well-being of 30 students. She also is a weekly volunteer at the Kramer Elementary School in Oxford, OH where she tutors fourth graders in math. Annamarie resides in Westerville, OH with her family.

Jacqueline Tu is from Dublin, OH and is a freshman at the Georgia Institute of Technology majoring in Aerospace Engineering. She hopes to pursue a career with fixed wing structural design and optimization. She achieved a perfect 4.0 grade point average in her first semester. Jacqueline is actively involved with the Georgia Tech Society of Women in Engineering and the Georgia Teach ChinaCare where she interacts with adopted Chinese children in monthly playgroups. While in high school Jacqueline was the President of the National Honor Society, served as a freshman mentor, and was on the student council. Outside of school she was a junior representative on the Board of Directors for the Columbus Figuring Skating Club.

Daniella Villa is a Senior at Johnstown-Monroe High School where she has a perfect 4.0 grade point average and is in the National Honor Society. This fall she will attend Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology and major in software engineering. Daniella is a four time varsity athlete in cross country; she served as team captain for two years. She has also been on the JV track team. For all four years in high school she has been in the book club, performed on the school's marching band, served on the student council, and performed in the school's annual musical. Outside of school Daniella has been a member of the Johnstown Creative Writing Club, a member of the 2017-18 Ohio Teen Ambassador Board, and participated in the 2017 Ohio Model United Nations.
